Postlude

About today's message: Today's lectionary reading from Mark 6: 1-6 is a fairly straightforward story of Jesus' return to his hometown of Nazareth, where he ran into the common problem that's sometimes summarized as "you can't go home again". The people who changed your diapers and taught you your first school lessons sometimes aren't pleased to have to listen to this little upstart now telling them what end is up.

But instead of going down that road today's message will go down a different path...

Office Summer Hours: The church office is now on summer hours. Closed on Mondays (Tues – Thurs 9am – 1pm; Friday 9am – noon).

Out of Office: Cathy will be out of the office starting Monday July 5th. She will be returning on Monday July 19th.

When Morning Gilds the Skies

VU 339

1. When morning gilds the skies,
my hearts awakening cries:
may Jesus Christ be praised!
When evening shadows fall,
this rings my curfew call:
may Jesus Christ be praised!
2. To God the word on high,
the hosts of angels cry:
may Jesus Christ be praised!
Let mortals, too, upraise
their voice in hymns of praise:
may Jesus Christ be praised!
3. Let all humankind
in this their concord find:
may Jesus Christ be praised!
Let all the earth around
ring joyous with the sound:
may Jesus Christ be praised!
4. Be this, while life is mine,
my canticle divine:
may Jesus Christ be praised!
Be this th'eternal song,
through all the ages long:
may Jesus Christ be praised!

The Church of Christ in Every Age

VU 601 v. 1, 5

1. The church of Christ in every age,
beset by change but Spirit led,
must claim and test its heritage
and keep on rising from the dead.
5. We have no mission but to serve in full obedience to our Lord:
to care for all without reserve
and spread Christ's liberating word.
